TRANSMISSISSIPPI

Common Policy for the West to Be Outlined by the Salt Lake Meeting.

Sait Lake, Utah, Aug. 27.—The 23d Trans-Mississippi commercial congress opened here today with many ideas to be threshed out touching a common policy for the west.

The sounding of sentiment on this topic or that began before the chairman of the local arrangement committee gave the signal for order in the assembly hall and introduced John L. Powell, chairman of the executive committee. It was suspended while Rev. Powell, chairman of the executive committee. If was suspended while Rev. Francis B. The introductory address of president A. C. Trumbo brought the minds of the delegates back to business and their pet resolutions.

Chairman Powell ventured the prediction that the Salt Lake meeting would be the beginning of a new form of activity by the congress. Hereafter, he said in an interview, the congress would devote more attention to the daily needs of the people, especially the development of soil fertility and scientific forming by backing the demands tific farming by backing the demands of the agricultural institutions for money and legislation.

"The United States Geological survey estimates that fully 50 per cent of these losses are from carelessness and incendiarism. incendiarism.

Good Roads—Good country roads will lead many people from the congested cities to the fresh open air and sunshine and since the coming of the automobile and electric lines they will permit people to enjoy a school will permit people to enjoy a school life, a church life and a social life equal to that in the city. The lone-someness of country life has led many away from it, and unless something is done to remove this greatest curse of country life, the nation at large will suffer and especially the great

Reclamation by Draininge and Flood Prevention—On account of the enormous loss of property along the Mississippi river and some of its tributaries last year in the flood and overflow districts, one of the very important measures to be discussed here this week is flood prevention by drainage or storage. Members of this congress from Louisiana and other states most largely interested should present plans for the consideration of this organiza-Reclamation by Draininge and for the consideration of this organiza-tion in the hope that a National drain-age act will solve the problem which is of more than mere local signifi-

With the fall of the dynasty, Fung lost his position. Since stated would make one of the finest parks in the country. The main feature to the park, it is said, will be the speed-way, which will be 70 feet in width and about one mile and a half in length.

The owners of the land, which it is proposed to have the city buy, are said to have signified their approval and little trouble is expected in getting them to give options on their holdings. P. E. Kern, who has been working on the park scheme for the past six months, stated scheme for the past six months, stated that he would secure options on the land, and proposals from those persons who own land over which it proposed to run the speedway. It was stated that it would be necessary to change the contour of the proposed speedway, and in this connection Mr. Kern will secure the assistance of the owners over whose property the road will be built. Until the city council decides to purchase the land the city engineer will not make any surveys. The cost of making the survey in this instance it was stated would involve the expenditure of several
